Topic – Addiction Medicine and the Opioid Crisis.

Register at www.cmdaofwny.org

Join us for a discussion on addiction medicine, featuring our good friends and colleagues, Dr. Warren Yamashita and Pastor Frank Monteleone.

Warren is a Family Medicine and Addiction Medicine Physician who recently graduated from the Stanford Addiction Fellowship. He is currently serving at Hurtt Family Health Clinic, a Federally Qualified Health Center in Orange County, California, providing family medicine and addiction medicine services. He is also a Stanford Addiction Medicine Fellowship Adjunct Instructor where he leads their Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion didactics with a Biblical frame.

Pastor Frank will share how Recovery Coaches assist those in recovery overcome barriers and obstacles.
